Elder Care Alliance is a learning organization that encourages and supports innovation

- We strive to build on our culture of learning and establish an environment that produces transformational programs and services.
- Memory care programming: In collaboration with the Hearthstone Institute, we've implemented I'm Still Here™ in our communities to encourage engagement and learning among people living with dementia.
- Employee wellness program: In order to care for residents, we must first care for ourselves. That's why we implemented a comprehensive wellness program for our employees, including on-site distribution of fresh fruit and vegetables, engaging physical activities, health education classes/ campaigns, and improvement of wellness policies and practices.
